Uncle Sam Has a Fleet Ready.

Warships Assembled at Colon in Case of Trouble With Mexico.

Madero Powerless to Stop the Reign of Brigandage and Anarchy.

Gunboat Is Hurried to Vera Cruz to Protect the Americans.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—(By A. P. Night Wire to the Times.)—The United States fleet at Vera Cruz is being increased because of widespread lawlessness of Mexican rebels in Vera Cruz State and throughout Southern Mexico, the State Department has been called on by the navy to protect the interests of the United States citizens in the republic.

The gunboat Wheeling is steaming tonight from Tampa, Fla., for Vera Cruz, where Americans are said to face a grave crisis that is being relieved by the cruiser Des Moines at the time of the Diaz uprising last October. She will make it in four days. The request from the State Department to the navy came after the receipt of a long series of official reports from United States Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson and consuls in Southern Mexican cities, all reflecting a condition of anarchy, especially in the State of Vera Cruz, where Federal authorities face the problem of restoring civil order with a disorganized and divided army. Guerrilla warfare, brigandage, sackings of ranches and villages and other desperate crimes place Americans and other foreign residents in a state of constant danger, and the latest advice to the State Department expresses fear of a worse outbreak.

HOPE FOR MORAL EFFECT.
When the Wheeling arrives in Vera Cruz harbor, Americans and other foreigners will be taken aboard and officials express the hope that the sight of her guns may have the same moral effect that followed the arrival of the Des Moines a few months ago. The vessel has a crew of 155 men, including marines, and is being commanded by the State Department. It is taken for granted that aggressive action will be resorted to if disturbed conditions threaten the safety of United States citizens.

TO PAY TRIBUTE.
That the Madero government was providing little or no protection for foreigners interests has been made evident again by recent action of American plenipotentiaries in announcing that they proposed to pay tribute to the rebel garrisons, to protect their growing crops against rebel bands and raiders. The first division of the Atlantic fleet, comprising the dreadnought Wyoming, North Dakota, Utah and Texas, arrived at Colon last night for the largest practice voyage that the remainder of the big fleet is at Colon. About twenty knots an hour.

Pharisees, Says Root.

Brandegee, chairman of the Inter-American Canal Committee, would call a meeting within a few days to take up Senator Root's amendment for the repeal of the free toll provision. A determined effort by those who opposed the original passage of the law will be made at this session of Congress to change the law before it goes into effect at the canal, the cause of dispute with Great Britain will be removed.

Senator Root declared the United States would violate all its pledges and promises to the world; would be guilty of "false pretenses" in its advocacy of general arbitration, and would proclaim itself indifferent to national honor and integrity, if it refused to submit to arbitration, or to retreat from the unjust position it had taken.

FREE TOLLS ILLEGAL.

He declared free coastwise tolls to American ships were illegal, unless equal concessions were made for foreign ships. The "claims that the United States has no right to demand the canal, because it owned the canal zone, constituted a violation of the treaty of 1903," he said. "The United States has no right to demand the canal zone, because it owned the canal zone, constituted a violation of the treaty of 1903," he said. "The United States has no right to demand the canal zone, because it owned the canal zone, constituted a violation of the treaty of 1903," he said.

STRONG APPEAL.
"Are we pharisees?" he cried. "Have we been insincere and false? Have we been pretending in all these long years of declaration that we are ready now to admit that our country, through its Presidents and Congressmen, has been guilty of false pretenses, of humbug, of talking to the galleries, of uttering fine words to secure applause?"

"The instant that an interest is at stake, the United States is ready to declare, every promise, by the arrogant insistence that we alone can determine the interpretation of the treaty; that we will refuse to abide by the treaty."

OUTLINE RELATIONS.
Senator Root outlined the relations between the United States and Great Britain. That declaration is the cornerstone of the right of the United States and the Panama Canal," he said. He read from statements made by the United States representatives when the Hay-Pauncefote treaty was framed that the United States would not, if it could obtain any exclusive right to the canal zone.

CONDEMNED FREE TOLLS.
Senator Root declared the United States had no right to give free tolls to American coastwise ships.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Jan. 22.—(Exclusive Dispatch.)—Arresting Nathan Green, a member of the firm of Green Brothers, on charges of taking part in an extensive diamond smuggling conspiracy, special agents of the United States Treasury today seized at the registry window of the general post office 119,592 diamonds, which they may have just received by mail from Amsterdam. Then they went to his store and seized 100,000 diamonds there. Arraigned before United States Commissioner Shields, Green was held in $5000 bail.

The agents assert that in his confession following his arrest, Green admitted a conspiracy which warranted them in going to his store and seizing other diamonds worth $60,000, which, in the latest seizure, were found in a similar fashion to those seized at the postoffice today.

Roosevelt Advises.

The strikers to get the employees of the United States government to join them. The police have had trouble for several days, chiefly from women strikers, who have figured in hair-pulling matches. A large number of men accompanying them today and one employee, Samuel DeBerfitt, was struck with an iron bar. The police pursued a number of strikers and arrested Samuel Levin and Joseph Delano. They were locked up as charges of assault.

ASSAILED BY STRIKERS.
Idor Smith, the proprietor of a shop on Hope street, accompanied some of his employees from his home today, and while trying to protect them near his factory, strikers assailed the party and Smith was struck over the head with an iron wrench. Patrolman Tracy arrested Morris Britton and Rubin Shinger.

A number of clergymen have offered their churches for the use of the strikers, among them the Rev. Dr. Percy Sidney Grant, rector of the Church of the Holy Trinity, at 11th avenue and Tenth street, and the Rev. Dr. Merle St. Croix Wright of the Lenox-avenue Synagogue.

REIGN OF TERROR.
URGED BY LEADER.

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Jan. 21.—(Exclusive Dispatch.)—Addressing a meeting of several striking hotel workers and sympathizers in Union square late today, Patrick Quinlan, one of the I.W.O. leaders, declared the strikers and police and said a reign of terror will begin in the big hotels if the workers do not win. Quinlan was wildly cheered.

The two figures of principal interest in Carnegie Hall the night before were absent. He was reported to be in Miami Beach. Had Thorpe, the laborer present, he says, he would have arrested Quinlan. Quinlan said in part:

"If we have to return to the Belmont and the Waldorf and the Astor and some other houses and our demands are not granted, if our fellows are compelled to go back, I tell you that the public that is compelled to eat in those places will have the most terrible thing happen to them of their lives. I do not know what the food they eat will taste like but I do know they will go away with a very different feeling from the one they had when they came in."

When the cheers that greeted these remarks died away, Quinlan continued:

"Guerrilla warfare such as has been carried on in Cuba will not be a circumstance to the guerrilla warfare we will carry on if the houses do not yield to our demands."

MUSICAL PROGRAMME.
She has found it necessary to give a hint to the demands of the public, the prying curiosity of the public, but even where concessions have been made these emphasize her inherent love of simplicity, and the beautiful Godard "Derwent" has been chosen by the bride-to-be to follow "On the Wings of Love" by Mendelssohn, which will be played by Franky Orchestra.

The other numbers selected for the southwest drawing-room, where the ceremony will be performed, are "The Swan Song" by Schumann, "The Swan Song" by Schumann, "The Swan Song" by Schumann, "The Swan Song" by Schumann.

WONDERFUL DECORATIONS.
A large part of the wonderful decorations have been furnished from Miss Gould's own hothouse on the west side of the street in America.

The foyer hall is decorated in the style of the southwest corner of the mansion overlooking the Hudson. The walls and ceiling of the room will be lost in blossoms of vines and the altar will be banked with roses. Vases of smilax and other flowering plants will surround the room, and from the ceiling will hang a magnificent display of vines.

The music-room, in which will be seated the orchestra, will be decorated with roses, smilax, and other flowers. Baskets of white roses will surround the dining-room on the second floor, and many vases of flowers will be set in for it. The front parlor will be banked with exotic and rare flowers, and a large display of orchids from Miss Gould's hothouse will also be placed there. The red carnations will be used to set off the room.

SHEPARD TALKS.
Shepard submitted to a short interview today which he laughingly declared would be his last talk on matrimony and in the course of which he said:

"Miss Gould's marriage to me will have no effect whatever on my charitable work. I wish it distinctly understood that I shall in no way interfere in her future work. I wish instead to be regarded as a reinforcement. I do not believe in forcing a woman to give her interests just because she has done you the honor of marrying you."

SEVENTY-FIVE GUESTS.
Not more than seventy-five guests altogether are to be present, including all the members of the Gould and Shepard families and Shepard's mother, who is ill. The relatives who have already gone to the wedding include the Duke and Duchess of Talleyrand, who was Miss Anna Gould and later the Countess de Castellane, the bride's sister. A. J. Vanderbilt, who was Miss Anna Gould and later the Countess de Castellane, the bride's sister.

THE WEDDING GOWN.
Miss Gould's wedding gown will be of ivory satin cut en-princeps with a long court train, high neck and long sleeves. The rare old rose point lace with which it is trimmed, is the gift of the Duchess de Talleyrand.

The bride is to have two attendants, the Countess de Castellane and Dorothy Gould, with possibly the young son of the Duke and Duchess de Talleyrand as best man.

The superintendent of the grounds at Lynhurst has made all arrangements with a New York detective agency for a number of men to protect the wedding gifts tomorrow and it is understood that they will remain in the house until the treasures are safely disposed of.

The plans for the wedding trip are kept closely guarded and no inkling has been given as to where Mr. and Mrs. Shepard will spend their honeymoon. The bride will be hosted indirectly, however, at a dinner for 100 "bread-and-butter" at the Lynhurst mission on her wedding night.

The "wounded soldiers" in the battle of life have always appealed to her sympathy and she is expected that they too shall be happy upon the occasion of her wedding.

(BY FEDERAL WIRELESS LINE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Jan. 21.—(Special Dispatch.)—Simplicity and beauty will characterize the wedding of Miss Helen Gould to Finley J. Shepard of the Missouri Pacific Railroad at Lynhurst tomorrow.

"I want it to be as nearly a simple wedding as possible," Miss Gould said today after waiting her little niece rehearse their parts in the ceremony. The richest bride rebelled at every effort made to swamp the solemnity of her love-life pact with the trappings of conventional display. So, while the ceremonial Godard "Derwent" has been chosen by the bride-to-be to follow "On the Wings of Love" by Mendelssohn, which will be played by Franky Orchestra.

HE LOCKS THE DOORS AGAINST THE WOMEN.

State School Superintendent Shies at Investigation.

Man Seeking Nearly Quarter Million Dollars of Taxpayers' Money for Institution at Whittier Turns Down Advisory Board—Says He's Backed by Governor No Matter How Nasty the Scandal.

THE contemplated investigation of the Whittier State School was balked yesterday afternoon by Superintendent Nelles, who insists that he has no money to stand by him no matter how nasty the scandal may become. Guards at the institution, acting under positive instructions from Nelles, refused to admit the three members of the Women's Advisory Board, who had gone to the school with the avowed purpose of learning the truth concerning current rumors and reiterated statements of incompetence and mismanagement in its conduct.

Although apprised of the proposed visit and its purpose, the head of the institution was absent when Dr. Amelia L. Gates, Mrs. J. E. Miller and Mrs. A. N. Davidson, comprising the advisory board, arrived at the school. And last night, "I can certify," Nelles admitted that he had been present to receive the women, instead of the guards, he would still have refused to permit them to enter the school.

The unparalleled discourtesy toward the members of the advisory board, who, in addition to their supposed competence, were members of the prominent women's clubs of the city, aroused widespread resentment. Inasmuch as the women had stated their purpose of procuring a complete audit of the school, and a sincere desire to get at the facts, there was a general feeling that Nelles had tried to hide something by placing obstacles in their path.

BOARD OF THREE MEN TO HANDLE HARBOR.

THE Harbor Investigating Committee is beginning to see the end of its delving of the past two weeks. ## STERN SQUELCH FOR BICKERING.

No Quarreling to Delay the Second Darrow Trial.

Judge Conley Puts Lawyers
Summarily Down.

Box Filled; Permanent Jury
Possibly Tomorrow.

That the second Darrow trial, which is now in progress in Extra Session Four of the Superior Court, will not be delayed by bickering of counsel, personal animosities, special pleas to the jury and the host of other extraneous matters that were injected in the first case, was made evident yesterday by Judge Conley.

At the first intimation of the all-time session the court declared very clearly that he will not allow personalities to break out between opposing counsel. His warning achieved the desired result. At adjournment there were twelve men in the box who had been placed for cause by the defense. One defendant was challenged by the defense and one by the prosecution, but in both instances the challenges were disallowed by the court. The state may discover grounds for additional challenges today as its examination proceeds. Also there are ten summary challenges yet to be exercised by the defense and five by the state. Notwithstanding all this, the lawyers on each side consider that remarkable progress was made yesterday.

At the present rate a jury will be secured possibly by tomorrow. In the first trial days were consumed in useless bickering of counsel, in the introduction of affidavits that were never used, in trying to bring newspaper writers into contempt of court and in the prolonged introduction of juries as to their family history and the history of everyone living in their "home towns."

Yesterday Rogers was interrogating George Robinson, one of the witnesses, the asked him if he knew that a verdict of "not guilty" was returned in the first trial. The witness replied that he did.

"Do you know Robert F. Dain, a steel-pipe for the District Attorney, a gambler?"

Both Gray and Ford arose to stop the question, but Judge Conley anticipated them. He said that the question was clearly improper. Rogers withdrew it.

Later Keogh informed the court that he had made an investigation and found that Rogers' veiled accusations against the witness were "unsubstantiated." Rogers started to reply.

WARNING BY JUDGE.
"This is the last time I will warn gentlemen that no personalities be allowed here," said Judge Conley. "I am now going to ask you to answer my question."

"I mean just what I say. Nothing personal will be allowed."

Upon the ground that new evidence had been discovered tending to show that the witness had been paid to give the answer he gave as a reason, the judge asked him to answer the question.

Judge Conley remarked that the prospective juror appeared hearty and bold to him. Farley then blurted out that he was an old man and unacquainted with the interpretation of the law. He said that he was not a juror.

"Your Honor, I don't like the treatment I have received here," said the old soldier. "I think it best that I withdraw. The indignities 'made about me are unjust."

Judge Conley talked with great feeling to the old man and put a number of questions to him in order to fully draw out his state of mind. Convinced the man will make a fair juror, the court finally disallowed the challenge made by the defense.

Darrow learned from his examination of Farley that the man was in Chicago, Creek about fifteen years ago and left because of the actions of the Western Federation of Miners. Other than that, Farley declared he determined no prejudice against laborers men. He said he was not a juror at the present time. He will be summoned later on peremptory challenges.

In the examination of John A. Delaney by the state's attorneys, an exactly opposite condition developed. It was shown he formerly belonged to a union, but he declared however that he now has no feeling for or against unions. He was rather unimpressed upon the subject of circumstances surrounding the case. Judge Conley of the prosecution gave him an illustration, Judge Conley supplied another. Finally the witness stated he could not give any circumstantial evidence alone provided he was convinced to a moral certainty.

AT THE OLD STAND.
Beginning with today the temporary boxmen will be kept in existence at Hotel Trenton, the place used in the first Darrow trial. The hotel is on Sixth Olive street, between Fourth and Fifth streets. The jurors will be placed under the supervision of Jack Henry or some other experienced deputy sheriff. Arrangements were made yesterday afternoon for both sleeping quarters and meals. The jurors were taken to the Hollenbeck yesterday for their meals and beds were made for them in the Court-house.

The twelve men now in the box are as follows: David Dunn, H. J. Robinson, A. W. Loman, David T. Roehold, John H. Dillingham, George H. McDonald, Frank M. Sanderson, John Farley, John D. Delaney, N. P. Spofford, Milwaukee Grant, George Robinson.

Sanderson is almost sure to be excluded by the court because of a recent statement. His wife is also unable to look after the ranch at Whittier during her husband's absence. Farley is mentioned by the defense and is disallowed by the prosecution. There are undoubtedly others who will be pruned away when the defense starts its exercise of peremptory challenges.

"Come on with your excuse," said Judge Conley. "I am feeling very good today."

One man declared that he thought that he was the 27th juror. Instead of the 27th, in view of the many times he has been called, the juror was

Browne, James Hendon and John Fitzgerald three medals ordered by the Board of Supervisors to commemorate their valor in taking the dynamiter, Carl Warr, at Central Station, November 13 last.

Resolutions of appreciation, accompanied by letters, were given to the three men who showed conspicuous bravery at the time when it was momentarily expected the building would be blown to pieces by Warr's infernal machine.

These so honored, in addition to the men above named, were: Chief Sebastian, Officers Olney, Sky, Donahy, Ingram, Willits (who is now in the Philippines), Graham, Mahan, Robinson and Randall. "What a State forgets the value of its citizens," said Fredericks. "It becomes a water-logged bulk, adrift at the mercy of the waves. We of Los Angeles have not forgotten you, and the County honors itself more than it honors you in paying this tribute to your splendid qualities."

Fredericks said he once served on the Los Angeles police force and has a warm spot in his heart for it. The medals given the three men were of gold, with the name of the recipient engraved on a bar above and a diamond in the center. Suitable inscriptions adorn both faces.

Capt. Fredericks was empowered on motion of Supervisor Butler to officially communicate the men's heroism to the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission.

Taylor, father of ten children, held with his 16-year-old child-wife at Phoenix on a charge of having passed worthless checks here, she indicated to the authorities there that he will waive extradition, Nick Harris and Mrs. Harris will leave today for Sacramento armed with documents furnished by Deputy District Attorney Vetch. To secure extradition papers from the Governor, if they succeed they will go to Phoenix.

Mrs. Harris was sworn in yesterday as a deputy constable under Constable Woodbury, and is therefore legally entitled to assume custody of Mrs. Taylor. The complete issue by the District Attorney alleges Taylor gave a check for $15 to J. J. Storms on the American Savings Bank, in which it is charged he had no funds, while Mrs. Taylor drew one for $14.44 payable to A. Fumott & Co. Harris asserts Taylor cashed other worthless checks.

Taylor told Chief Moore at Phoenix yesterday he will take his chances here on the charge, meet his trial and begin life anew after it is over. His wife, whom he married after fifteen minutes' acquaintance, appears to have awakened to a sense of romance blighted, which is in no manner assuaged by a knowledge of what awaits her in his third wife.

Taylor was arrested on suspicion of some real estate deal, pay his debts and settle for the checks. He says, according to Phoenix dispatches, that his wife's extravagance, automobile ride and childlike amusement reduced him to a precarious condition.

REOPENS WOUND.
Alleged Hold-Up Man Points Arrest, Is Struck on Head and Later Makes Blood Flow Again.

Edward Bowman, No. 2454 East First street, who was held up and robbed last Monday night near First and San Pedro streets, has been asked by police detectives to visit the City Jail today to see if he can identify Emil Simon, Mike McDonald and George Wilhelm as the man who robbed him of $4.

They were arrested on suspicion shortly before daylight at San Pedro street, near Winston, following a revolver duel with Patrolman Sweetman. While the men were running from the police, one of them dropped a box of cigars, which it is thought they stole earlier in the evening. They also had a rooming-house register.

One of the men had a quantity of money in his possession in denominations corresponding with the pieces Bowman said were taken from him. Simon resisted arrest and Sweetman struck him on the head, cutting the flesh on the left side, near the eye. While being examined in the detective office, Simon reopened the wound by picking at the bandage.

At the Receiving Hospital he declared he had been struck while being "sweated." His statement is denied by Sweetman and Bowman. Dr. Kidder, who redressed the wound, said there were no evidences that the hemorrhage was due to a blow.

HAS LOTS OF NERVE.
Daylight Robber Enters Grocery, Hits Till, Removes Mask and Coolly Rides Away.

A daylight robber whose nerve is apparently exceeded only by his good looks, is sought by the police for having plundered J. Shively's grocery store, No. 4738 South Park avenue, of $69, while he held the proprietor and two customers at bay with a large revolver.

The man rode a bicycle. He dismounted, tied a handkerchief over his face, drew his revolver, and entered the store.

"Hands up!" he commanded, flourishing the gun. Shively, O. Burlingame and a third man hastened to comply.

The hold-up lined the three against the counter, opened the till, helped himself, and walked out. Then he removed the handkerchief and put it in his pocket, lit a cigarette, looked back into the store, mounted his wheel and rode merrily away.

look forward to what they might hope to be, but there was to be no going over this matter. It is my purpose not to permit either the advisory board or anyone else to talk to these girls and arouse their feelings in the matter. The incident is closed and will remain closed. I do not think this is an opportune time for an investigation when the women of the advisory board were at the school. I should have refused to let them make such an investigation as they had planned.

I know that I am a long backed in my actions by Gov. Johnson and that he will go all the way across with me. With that assurance, which I received the last time the Governor was here, I need not worry over what the public or the press think or say.

In a statement prepared under the direction of Nelson, and signed by many of the employees of the school, the course of action pursued by the superintendent in handling the recent trouble and the affairs of the school in general is commended. The girls should not be held responsible for the recent outbreak, but says they were encouraged to create trouble. This statement is signed by Beatrice Paulsen, Emma W. Spear, Dr. Augustin Zuber, Miss Susan Dean, Miss Shell, W. E. Connor, Miss Sarah Buchanan, Dr. J. M. Collier, David Lattimer, Miss Alvarado, George Bealer, W. W. Ward, Charles R. Anderson, George Jonsson, Frank Will, M. Carthage and T. D. Waller.

Nelson in an additional statement said he expects to continue the policy of the school affairs he is doing the best he knows.

Member of Jewelry Firm, Arrested for Driving Auto While Intoxicated, Peppermint Police.

Melvin Nordlinger, No. 1837 West Ninth street, secretary and treasurer of the jewelry firm of S. Nordlinger & Sons, No. 431-433 South Broadway, was arrested yesterday afternoon at Fifth and Broadway by Sgt. O'Brien of the Traffic Squad, and booked at the Central Station, for driving an auto while intoxicated.

Nordlinger was attempting to drive a two-seater car that James Wilson, proprietor of the Cottage Inn, recently purchased from Barton Long. The front end of the car had been damaged, presumably in a collision. A front lamp was broken and bent to one side, and the mudguard over the front right wheel had been bent and twisted. Wilson said that when Nordlinger borrowed the car, he had been drunk and had been driving for an hour and a half before he was arrested. He was sober and the machine was in good condition. Where and how the accident occurred, if one did occur, is a mystery to the police.

Receiving Hospital doctors said yesterday it is remarkable the man's skull was not fractured. McDowell told the police that he was drinking with before he lost consciousness. He said almost all of McDowell's wearing apparel, including his gloves.

McDowell was in such a dazed condition yesterday that the detectives did not ask him to identify Conley and Payne as the men he was drinking with before he lost consciousness. He denied that he gave the young men his jewelry or clothing.

NEW BANK DIRECTORS.
At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Park Bank yesterday the following new directors were elected: Frank J. Carlisle, W. H. Harrison and E. W. Mueller. They fill the places left vacant by A. W. Ryan, E. W. Davies and Perry Waldner. It is expected that the stock of the Park Bank will be listed on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange soon. Stockholders of the Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank and the Merchants Bank and Trust companies also held their annual meetings yesterday.

Bradford's Bread Line

If you want to spend a most interesting half hour—follow the "bread line" through the "Bradford" bakery—from start to finish.

"Bradford's" is the only bakery in Los Angeles where you can see the making of bread done entirely with modern machinery and bread making ideas.

You can see the start, where the flour goes into the sifter and blender, where the flour and water are weighed and dropped into the mixer; then from the mixer to the trough, then the kneading machine, cutting and weighing machine—and into the oven, without hands having once touched it.

From the ovens it goes in white enameled trays, on white enameled racks, to the wrappers, who work in a white enameled room.

And when the "Bradford" loaf reaches you—you may have every assurance that it is the clean, "Matchless Loaf."

DAILY BEAUTY HINT: Beware of alluring advertisements which show the possibility of instantly removing deep and long-enduring wrinkles without injury to the wearer. While there are doubtless a few who accomplish such wonders, they are few and far between; and instances of malpractice in this line abound. ### WOMEN'S WORK, WOMEN'S CLUBS.

BY SYDNEY FORD.

Mrs. J. S. Stearns called attention at Ebell Club Monday afternoon to the observation of child labor day on next Thursday. The National Child Labor Committee has issued a call to churches and schools and clubs to observe Saturday, Sunday and Monday as such, and has received the hearty indorsement of the Federal Council of Churches in America and of the Social Service Commission of the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of New York.

Mrs. Stearns requested members of Ebell to make it a matter of personal interest; to ask the ministers of the various churches to hold services appropriate to the occasion, and to write to the Assemblymen to ask the Legislature to favor the child labor bill.

The Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America have sent out a statement, signed by the president, Shailer Mathews, and the secretary, Charles K. McFarland, in which, among many other things, attention is called to the census bureau on child labor for 1900, the latest figures available on the subject, which point out that the total number of workers from 12 to 15 years of age, 1,762,157, does not include the thousands of nevrology and bootblacks who were attending school, nor the other thousands of children who were employed in tenement-house manufacturing. It is expected that in all the forty-three States having legislative sessions this winter bills regarding the child-labor problem will be introduced.

Dr. Shailer Mathews, who has recently been chosen president of the organization mentioned above, it will be recalled, is dean of the Divinity School of the University of Chicago, and is about to assume editorial charge of the magazine, "The Biblical World." He is well known as a writer, the author of "The Gospel and the Modern Man," "The Church and the Changing Order," and he is also the editor of a number of Bible commentaries, notably "The Bible for Home and School" and the "New Testament Handbook."

Hollywood Club Programmes.

The Hollywood Woman's Club announces some exceedingly interesting programmes for the winter, not the least of which will be the one presented today when Miss E. C. McCullough will tell about a summer month she spent in Honolulu. It is to be a regular Hawaiian day, with flowers from the islands, and an exhibit of paintings by Mrs. R. M. Poirson, and Hawaiian music by a group of girls. Next week the programme will take up civic under the direction of Mrs. Vernon C. Harren, chairman of the District Federation, and on the first Wednesday in February Prof. Maria L. Sanford, for thirty years a member of the faculty of the University of Minnesota, will give one of her brilliant talks under the head of "Literature for Everybody," which will undoubtedly sparkle with wit and wisdom. Prof. Sanford will be remembered as the delightful little gray-haired lady, some 75 years young, who addressed the City Club here last summer on her return to

There is something big back of the growth of GIBRALTAR and it is not hard for the resident of Southern California to satisfy himself as to what it is. The greatest recommendation that can be found is in the strength of nearly 4300 co-operative shareholders who have joined GIBRALTAR. GIBRALTAR Has Grown Faster Than Any Other Co-operative Investment Company on the Pacific Coast

The assets of GIBRALTAR have greatly increased in value during the past thirty days, due to the proven faultless quality of the Bloomington acreage and also from the higher market value of the olive tree. Land adjacent has been raised $50 an acre. The olive withstands much colder weather than the orange, and GIBRALTAR owns the greatest collection of growing olive trees in the entire world. GIBRALTAR owns at Bloomington the best olive and citrus land to be found in Southern California. This acreage is surrounded by the great GIBRALTAR chain of 31 nurseries and the greatest olive propagating plant in the world. GIBRALTAR is using this land for the creating of orchard-homes.

GIBRALTAR Has Made Good

BECAUSE the buying public has heard that Bloomington Orange Groves escaped damage from frost, and Gibraltar's land is the best to be had in this proven district for either citrus or olive growing. The 1277-acre Bloomington tract has been selling rapidly. SEVEN SALES AND GREGATING $22,000 WERE MADE ON MONDAY. The shrewd foresight and long experience of President Martin and the Gibraltar directors in the purchase of the Bloomington tract have been proven by the escape from frost damage, and Gibraltar shareholders are reaping results from the rapid sales which are being made, taxing the efforts of the land department in the carrying of appreciative investors to this broad, level, well-watered and mountain protected area of land.

Is Supreme Need.

PASADENA, Jan. 21.—So zealous were some of the clubs and large bodies of the city yesterday to secure for their members and guests tickets for the "Champion Women," which is to be put on at the Pasadena Theatre tomorrow and Friday nights by a society east, as a benefit for the Scripps Home for Aged Persons, that most of the best seats for the first night vanished early in the morning like a flash of powder and many of the four hundred will have to content themselves with balcony and rear seats.

There has probably never been so great a demand for tickets for anything of the kind attempted here. The 300 members of the company are society's fairest and the demand for seats of various grades which will watch the performance has amounted practically to a scramble.

An agent of the Valley Hunt Club, perhaps the most fashionable club of the city, stood in line with others in front of the Southern California Edison Company's office, No. 17 East Colorado street, where the seats were put on sale at 8 o'clock, from 3 o'clock in the morning, and when the ticket sale was closed about 12 o'clock the chairman said for the members of that organization. The Hotel Maryland got ninety-three and the Hotel Green thirty-nine. Those who came down late in their automobiles in the middle of the forenoon found nothing but inferior seats to buy. Many women were personally stood in line for hours to get their tickets. The line extended on Colorado street to Raymond avenue and for a considerable distance on that street.

As a result there was much telephoning yesterday among the smart set and the directors of the show were taken to task for what was termed a "ticket grab."

The directors say they were powerless to prevent what happened and last night found many seats. Mrs. W. P. Knight, president of the Pasadena Society, said the entertainment is to take place as successful in an attempt to get herself a good one.

"There were absolutely no tickets left," Mrs. Knight said last night. "We could not prevent the Valley Hunt Club from buying those 93. There was nothing done that was avoidable. If we had placed a limit on the tickets that any one person could have bought, the club would undoubtedly have had more than there to buy."

Long before the day was gone there were no 13 tickets left for the first performance.

The society actors and actresses last night assembled at the Hotel Green for a dinner, rehearsal and dance.

ORDINANCE GOES THROUGH.

The City Council met at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon and passed on first reading the new traffic ordinance. An extra session will be held today, at which the ordinance will be adopted on second reading and thus become a law. It will become effective day after tomorrow.

The ordinance is a long one, which has only been drawn after months of deliberation. It will necessitate many changes in methods of crossing streets and driving automobiles in front of stores in the downtown part of the city.

FOR A QUICKER LINE.

Following the annual meeting of the Pasadena Realty Board, which was held last Monday night at the Hotel Green, it was announced yesterday that this organization will make its chief aim during the coming year that of seeing that steps are taken toward the bettering of another railway line between Pasadena and Los Angeles over which quicker service may be had than is now had over the Pacific Electric line. The organization has been through out by the organization that it might be well for the city of Pasadena to offer a $1,000,000 bonus to any private company that will undertake quickly to provide such a service.

T. P. Lukens, who last Monday was elected president of the Realty Board, yesterday said:

SIERRA MADRE OFFICIALS TO ACCORD SWIFT PUNISHMENT.

Blackguards Have Made Things No Disagreeable on This Attractive Mountain. Climbs That Vigorous Action Was Found Necessary to Protect Decent Climbers.

SIERRA MADRE, Jan. 21.—The rowdiness, pistol shooting, brawling and yelling, the drinking of intoxicants on the public highways and other forms of disorder, which for years have been sources of annoyance to those living along the line of travel sought by the mountain climbers up Mt. Wilson and in the different canyons in this section, will soon be a thing of the past.

For years appeals to the City Trustees, petitioners from the Woman's Club to Sheriff Hammel, communications from prominent citizens to the County Supervisors and threats of summary punishment by victims brought no relief. It was left for Marshal Art Udell and Special Deputy Marshal C. E. Barnard, formerly police sergeant of Minneapolis, to master the situation. The first few weeks moral suasion was tried. This lasted until the officers passed out of view, then the bad boys broke loose on the highways, pulled out their pistols, and many other forms of disorder would arise. Sergeant Barnard secured the assistance of several other hunky deputies, whom he stationed at various points along the boulevard leading to the trail. Marshal Udell brought the matter to the point of enjoining the city, casually cast his eyes over the crowd, picked out the bad ones and at the end of the line passed to the next point of enforcement. He in turn passed the word along the trail.

Last evening five of the most belligerent and noisy were gathered and put in the new city jail. About thirty others were caught, given a word of warning and permitted to quietly wander up the mountain. The five thus caught thought they had a country constable of the old tribe of St. Perkins to deal with. They tried to work a bluff and bluster. Threatened the sergeant with damage suits, dire vengeance and other things. Nothing doing with the sergeant. His experience on the St. Minneapolis had hardened him and despite physical resistance they were bundled off. Recorder Charles Hall Perry, who has shown considerable patience with malefactors of this character before, fined each of the culprits $25. He also determined that this form of disorder should be abolished in the community. The Pacific Electric Railway officials have agreed to aid the officers by permitting them to board their cars at points along the line, and have also donated a sum to be paid to Sergeant Barnard in recognition of his efforts to protect their passengers and the peaceful traveling public.

Those arrested the other night gave their names as V. E. Wiles, F. Wardell, A. Pratter, J. Powell and F. Johnson. Officers of the Juvenile Court have been notified, as many cases of contributing to the delinquency of minors have been cited. It is not an unusual sight on the last Saturday night cars to see young girls not out of their teens being pined with liquor by the older companions while en route to Sierra Madre. Only recently a resident living near the end of the line found a little girl of 14 lying in a orchard under the influence of liquor. Before the authorities could be reached her companions had bundled her into a returning car for Los Angeles. Although the majority of those who seek the mountain and canyons are of the best class of citizens, the hoodlum element has made these trips at times very undesirable. So much has this condition increased on the last Saturday night that many commuters avoid the trip.

PASADENA DECADE.

PASADENA, Jan. 21.—A one-story building on South Broadway, near Colorado street, occupied by F. E. Blair, a hay and grain dealer, and George Deters, who carried on an automobile supply business, was destroyed by fire at 12:50 o'clock tonight. The origin of the fire is not known. The building was owned by George Fred of No. 219 South Madison avenue. It was insured for $25,000. The total loss is estimated at $25,000.

The folks of Hollywood enjoyed one of their congenial entertainments last night, on the occasion of the annual meeting of the Hollywood Board of Trade, when more than 500 ladies and gentlemen of the foothill section of the city assembled at a banquet, tendered by the management of the High School.

The feast was served in the Household and Fine Arts building, by the girls of the school, the entire menu, with the exception of the ice cream, was prepared by the domestic department. The decorations and the service were City Superintendent, Francis and Mrs. Francis, and Col. J. J. Steadman of the Board of Education, and Mrs. Steadman.

In the auditorium the High School band and the High School Girls Club of mixed voices, gave a fine program of music, and Glenn Nichols rendered a dramatic solo of his own composition.

In the address of welcome, Prof. W. G. Snyder, the popular and efficient principal of the school, said the assembled citizenship that he and these associated with him were trying to build up a school which will make of the boys and girls of Hollywood what their parents would like to have them be.

President Chase of the Board of Trade briefly reviewed the progress that the organization has accomplished. "I am sure," he said, "the Board of Trade has brought many things to the attention of the city and that it will not accept a bribe of three cigarettes from Roger M. Andrews to permit him to speak at the party at Christopher's yesterday. The cigarettes bore the initials of Andrews and he was declared guilty without trial and promptly manacled. In honor of the fact that Long Beach is dry, Mayor Hatch was presented with a half gallon bottle of champagne on the condition that he carry it home without any wrapper.

"How to sell somebody something they don't want and make them afraid they bought it was the subject of psycho-advertising addresses by Robert E. Armstrong and secretary W. G. Adams. J. D. Radford was also among the speakers of the day and George B. Harrison received an ovation when appointed by President Ernest Ingham as chairman of the celebration publicity committee. It was announced that C. W. Post, of Battle Creek, will speak to the club in February, that the club will hold a smoker on the night of Washington's Birthday, and that its membership will join with the Rotary Club in a big banquet March 19 when covers will be laid for 1000 men and women.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The Mayor called a conference of Councilmen yesterday, at which they agreed to make immediate provision for printing in full the Mayor's reply to charges made in the report of the Aqueduct Investigation Board. The Council authorized the printing of 10,000 copies of the latter report and the Mayor's reply will go out with each copy. They may be bound together.

The question of tenure of street railway franchises caused the same old struggle to arise in the City Council yesterday. Councilman Stewart, who is an ardent supporter of the franchisees, was opposed by Councilman Andrews, who would let the people suffer from lack of transportation facilities unless they would take them strictly in accord with the franchisees.

The Councilmen decided informally yesterday that the rate of interest upon the proposed bond issues of $1,000,000 shall be 4 1/2 per cent.

The necessary two-thirds vote could not be secured yesterday to permit the City Council to eliminate the proposition to issue $400,000 bonds for the payment for the State Normal School site, and this will go down the ballot.

Two youths who formed a partnership in crime were sentenced to serve two years in State's prison yesterday by a Superior Court Judge.

At the City Hall.

TWO REPORTS GO OUT TOGETHER.

BOARD'S FINDINGS AND MAYOR'S REPLY TO APPEAR.

Councilmen agreed to request of Chief Executive for such action, after having authorized issuance of Ten Thousand Copies of Aqueduct Investigation Proceedings.

The City Council took final action yesterday on the subject of having 10,000 copies of the report of the Aqueduct Investigation Board printed. The contract was awarded to the Wayland Press, which concern President Dunn of the Good Government Organization, is owner.

The full report will be published, but the photographs will be eliminated. Even so, it will make a bulky document of far more than 100 pages of newspaper size. Dunn proposed that the Council authorize him to go down the street and cut out such portions as are not germane to the investigation, saying that he was willing to do this, and that he would not care to give the members of the investigation board to do this work.

The Council decided to print the report in full, according to demand of the board, and it will have to pay $10,000 for this edition of 10,000 copies.

The Aqueduct Investigation Board and various localities and other organizations have been making much capital, or endeavoring to, out of the fact that the report has not yet been printed, although it was completed more than four months ago.

The Mayor, when he heard of the Council's action, called a conference of the Councilmen yesterday afternoon, and asked them to make immediate provision for the publication of this report of his own reply to the charges made therein, and this the Councilmen have agreed to do. If the investigation board's report is mailed to the voters, then a copy of the Mayor's answer will be mailed with each copy. It may be decided to have the two bound together.

On September 20 the Investment Bankers Association of America, which has its headquarters in Chicago, and which has had in mind investment in Los Angeles municipal bonds, sent a letter to the Mayor, asking for information regarding the charges made in the Aqueduct Investigation Board's report, and asking:

As soon thereafter as it could be prepared, the Mayor issued a comprehensive reply to the charges, reviewed the practically the entire ground covered by the report. The Mayor's reply, in substance, was quite fully published in The Times. It is this reply in full that will be printed to go out with the board's report.

The Mayor stated last night that he acted in this matter simply to protect the City's credit, and that he came for a complete publication of his reply to go out with the board's report, is based on this motive alone.

NAME OLD QUESTION.

TENURE OF FRANCHISES.

The same old question of the tenure of street railway franchises, hobbled again in the City Council session yesterday, when the Pacific Electric was granted a twenty-one year franchise for its second track on Avenue 41. Councilman Reed opposed the twenty-one year tenure, declaring that he had pledged himself to vote for nothing but indefinite franchises. Councilman Andrews accused Reed of being a hypocrite, who proposed to interfere his own views against the wishes of the citizens and who was willing that a community should suffer from lack of adequate transportation rather than to accede to what Andrews declared was a common-sense business proposition.

"Reed responded warmly and declared that he would unflinchingly maintain his stand. He was the only vote against the franchise.

A similar round occurred when the subject of the proposed extension of the West Jefferson street line came on. Patrons of that line petitioned that the Los Angeles Railway Corporation be given a permit under its present franchise to extend this line to the city limits. This was referred to the Board of Public Utilities for recommendation, but Reed announced on the Council that he would oppose granting such a permit and would vote for nothing except an indefinite franchise for the forty-year city limits, was referred by the Council yesterday to the Board of Public Utilities for its recommendation.

The Council decided yesterday to abandon all proceedings for the opening of New High street into North Broadway until petition therefor representing at least 51 per cent of the frontage affected is filed.

The Council decided yesterday that something must be done to curb the removal of sand and gravel from the river bed, and referred the subject to the Board of Public Utilities, with instructions to work out some scheme for the regulation of such hauling. It is probable a charge of 25 cents per

Public Service Commission, the City Council voted yesterday to submit the proposition to issue $1,000,000 for the water distribution system in the San Fernando Valley under the designation of bonds for "the Mission, Fernando, Glendale and Chatsworth lines." The original designation was the San Fernando-Chatsworth line, but this, according to the Public Service Commission, was not sufficiently comprehensive.

Against "Dope" and "Baccy." Councilman Andrews was given an opportunity to air his ideas on medicine and stimulants yesterday when the subject of providing medical treatment for the inmates of the Insane Home was before the City Council.

He opposed the plan of employing a special physician or physicians for the purpose of giving the inmates medical treatment, and declared that he believed the men would be better off without "dope" being poured into their systems.

"If you're going to turn loose the ordinary doctors on these poor unfortunate, I doubt if they will be any better off than if they were left out there," he declared. "They needn't be given drugs nor tobacco, nor any of that sort of thing. We're going wild on the sort of thing. Why there isn't a city in the world that furnishes itself so thoroughly with tobacco as Los Angeles. You actually have to do it as you go along the sidewalks. Let these men have the opportunity to live natural lives without being filled with dope."

It was decided that the city surgeons will have to give what attendance they can to the inmates of the Insane Home, as there is no funds available for the employment of special physicians.

Resolution of Councilmen.

The City Council adopted yesterday the resolutions of condolence upon the death of former Councilman George H. Stewart, prepared by a committee composed of Councilmen Andrews and Whiffen, who served with Stewart as a city legislator.

In these resolutions the statement is made that the City Council feels the great loss to the city of one of its most estimable citizens and that while during his term of office as a Councilman Stewart carried himself and his associates by reason of his cheerful disposition and by his keen, quick perception of the varied matters and difficulties which he was called upon to solve.

Will Go on Ballot.

Councilman Whiffen championed a proposition yesterday that the City Council eliminate from the various bond propositions to be voted upon February 12 the one to issue $400,000 for payment of the purchase price on the State Normal School site.

Whiffen stated that he had been in conference with the bankers and other organizations which have taken an special interest in securing the school site, for that the City Council feel that the bond proposition should not go before the people at a time when so many other demands are being made upon the City's finances. As arrangements have been made to carry this obligation for at least two years, he declared it is better to drop the proposition from the proposed bond issues.

This was opposed by Andrews, Betts and others, who declared that they believed the people should be given an opportunity to show just how they feel about the purchase of the school site, and as a two-thirds majority for elimination could not be secured, the question will go upon the ballot.

Decide Interest Rate.

At an informal conference of the Councilmen after yesterday's session, it was decided that the interest rate on the proposed bond issues, which aggregate $1,000,000, shall be 4 1/2 per cent. The Mayor has urged a 5 per cent rate, in order to hasten the sale of such bonds as may be authorized, but Special Counsel Matthews, who has been working together in marketing city bond issues, declares that this would have the tendency of injuring the city's credit.

Under Emergency Order.

The City Council authorized the Board of Public Works to proceed with securing of street lighting under emergency order until an agreement is reached between the city and the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation as to the basis for the lighting contract for the ensuing year.

No More "Pollers-In."

The City Council adopted yesterday the long-discussed ordinance making it a misdemeanor for "pollers-in" to operate on streets or in doorways in order to secure patronage for business places. This ordinance, which is signed to rid Main street of a nuisance from which many complaints have arisen and was urged by the best merchants on Main street.

New Commission's Turn.

The City Auditor is holding up a demand for $111.15 for special photography hire incurred by the Civil Service Commission without authorization by the City Council, and the Council must decide whether the money shall be paid. Councilman Topham, who is held to be $100 in debt to the City because of his refusal to allow the Civil Service Commission hearings where this stenographer was employed, is chortling with glee as the Council may decide to let him go to get his demand approved.

City Hall Revivified.

The Council yesterday passed the ordinance regulating the placing and removing of poles for electric service and also providing for their joint use by electric companies, as prepared by the Joint Public Utilities Committee, was passed by the Council yesterday.

President Williams of the Council announced yesterday that in the absence of Councilman Lusk, on account of illness, the Legislation Committee will be composed of Councilmen Andrews, Reed and Whiffen.

The petition of patrons of the West Jefferson street car line for permission, under the present franchise, for the extension of this line to the city limits, was referred by the Council yesterday to the Board of Public Utilities for its recommendation.

The Council decided yesterday to abandon all proceedings for the opening of New High street into North Broadway until petition therefor representing at least 51 per cent of the frontage affected is filed.

The Council decided yesterday that something must be done to curb the removal of sand and gravel from the river bed, and referred the subject to the Board of Public Utilities, with instructions to work out some scheme for the regulation of such hauling. It is probable a charge of 25 cents per load will be made for sand and gravel.

The Health Commissioner asked the Council yesterday for two more inspectors of fruits and vegetables and the park department asked for money with which to pay salaries of two expert plant settlers. Chairman Whiffen of the Finance Committee declined the requests, saying that in the number of city employees it is impossible in the present financial situation, but the requests were referred to the Supply Committee.

R. E. Williamson, a member of the Fire Commission, was given a month's leave of absence by the Council yesterday that he may have his eyes treated.

The special committee on public markets, appointed by the Council several weeks ago, has called a public meeting for Monday night in the Council chamber to consider the subject.

Residents of Garvanza filed a protest yesterday against the proposed cutting down of a venerable sycamore tree on the corner of the street at Avenue 44 and Elder street. The Pacific Electric wants to remove the tree to make way for its double track but the protesters say they would prefer a single track.

The local offices of the Los Angeles Aqueduct Bureau will be closed today and the city departments that they may purchase for their offices such furniture from this equipment as they may need at a decided sale.

FOR TWO YEARS THEY'LL WORK.

YOUNG NEER-DO-WELLAS SENT TO PENITENTIARY.

One Distinguished Himself for Villainy During L.W.W. Riots at San Diego Last Year—Form Partnership to Plunder—Admit Guilt and Ask Pardon.

Charles W. Pinkham, an anarchist, and glad of it, and Chris Lashley, his pal, were sentenced yesterday to two years at San Quentin by Superior Judge Wilbur for burglary. Both pleaded guilty and asked for probation, but the court denied their application.

Pinkham came into the limelight during the L.W.W. riots at San Diego last April. Although barely 20 years old, he proved one of the most vicious characters of the disorderly horde. He was arrested for having violated the anti-street-speaking ordinance and when arraigned before Judge W. H. Hartford yesterday he was committed April 12.

Pinkham says he began life as a railroad operator and drifted West. He joined the L.W.W. when they attempted to terrorize San Diego. Lashley is 18 years old. He was committed to the penitentiary for an offense against a French girl in the Ventura bean fields. Judge Clark of Ventura paroled him in July for good behavior and he is now in the police department here received from inmates of the State Reform School with the intention of becoming a hold-up man. He met Pinkham in this city, and joining forces, they entered a house at No. 2214 West Fourth street, robbing the inmates of $10 cash and wearing apparel.

HIS MOTHER SUFFERS.

FAINTS AT SON'S SENTENCE.

George Nelson, jack of auto thieves, was committed to the State school at Whittier yesterday until he reaches his majority, four years hence. His mother collapsed.

Mrs. Nelson, whose agitation increased as Judge Wilbur summed up her son's punishment, fainted as the sentence was pronounced. There was a flurry in the juvenile court, with half a dozen men rushing to the aid of the injured. Judge Wilbur ordered a couch brought into the courtroom to avoid carrying Mrs. Nelson to an ante-room. George and his brother, Henry, assisted a woman friend in reviving Mrs. Nelson.

For the first time in months George showed alarm. He said he was afraid the shock would prove fatal to his mother, but as she regained consciousness the old look of unconcern reappeared on his face.

WANTS MONEY BACK.

SUES WIFE AND STEP-CHILDREN.

Suit against his wife, step-son and step-daughter, aggregating $10,000, were filed yesterday in the Superior court by George W. Evans, a Los Angeles dealer. The suits are the sequel of the divorce action brought by Mrs. Evans on the ground of cruelty and heard by Judge Monroe, who denied a decree.

The testimony of Mrs. Evans, who was the wife of the late Lieut.-Gov. Millard, showed she practically ignored her husband. Mrs. Evans alleged that while he was in the north shipping horses to his Allen-street sales stable, the money received from the sale of the animals was turned over to Mrs. Evans and that she gave certain sums to Gertrude Millard, her daughter, and Spencer Millard, her son.

Mrs. Evans alleged her wife received $50,000 belonging to him and that she refused to account for $25,000. He claims the latter amount in his suit against her. He alleges he expended $2500 for Gertrude and advanced $2500 to Spencer, both agreeing to repay the amounts.

WIFE'S CHARGE FALLS.

HUSBAND WINS DECREE.

D. Hyman, a jeweler, and his wife, Ora Vada, a cabaret singer, apparently did not get along well together. Ora blamed his convivial habits. Hyman denied the charge. As Mrs. Hyman could not prove he drank to excess, Hyman was granted a decree of divorce.

The case was tried by Judge Monroe. The couple were married May 2, 1901. Both charged desertion. Mrs. Hyman testified she packed her jewels in Chicago and that her husband refused to redeem them. She said she last lived with him in May, 1910. Previous to the trial of the suit Hyman agreed to pay his wife $125 a month.

WANTS MULE MONEY.

HUMANE COMMISSION SUES.

A story of two mules is contained in the complaint of Joseph E. Quinn against the Humane Animal Commission, W. H. Trombrow, Frank Gordon and James Calderwood, members of the Humane Animal Commission. According to the complaint the mules were owned by Anna Held, not the actress. One was a sorrel, the other a brown mule, both 12 years old, and appeared to have been taken by the Humane Animal Commission.

Quinn values the mules at $100 and says their services are worth $25 a month. He wants $125 damages.

AFFIRMS JUDGMENT.

DRUGGIST'S CONVICTION STANDS.

The long, hard fight made by Joseph S. Foulke, a Long Beach druggist, who was found guilty by a jury in Judge John Hart's court of violating a city ordinance covering the sale of liquor, ended yesterday, when Judge Hart affirmed the conviction.

The complaint for Foulke's arrest was sworn to by Chief O'Rourke May last. Foulke's point raised in the case was that it was a habit to use one prescription indefinitely. The defense contended the ordinance does not include drug stores. Foulke was fined $100 with the alternate of 100 days in jail.

RIGHT OF WAY.

BRINGING IN POWER.

The city filed its first condemnation suit yesterday for a right-of-way for the transmission line which will carry the power from the aqueduct to this city. The defendants are C. R. Cusack, the Standard Oil Company, the National and California Oil Company, the Santa Ana Oil Company and others.

The strip desired is 150 feet wide and extends five miles long. For several months the city has been taking options on land for the right-of-way, and this suit and others to be filed later will be undertaken when it is unable to obtain options.

WHOSE BABY?

COURT SEEKS INFORMATION.

John Doe is the only name he is known by, but someone is responsible for abandonment of a chubby 2-month-old boy at Garfield station, Alhambra, November 27 last.

The Children's Home Founding Society has a good home for this boy, but John Doe will not let him go. Doe was too well-nourished and well-dressed to have been the offspring of indigent parents. The court is holding the boy at the Children's Home until mother or father will make inquiries and thus lead to the baby's restoration.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVETTEE MISCELLANEOUS.

QUIET-TITLE SUIT. Suit against the city to quiet title to a two-foot strip of land has been filed by Attorney Sanders, counsel for his father, N. J. Sanders. This strip was condemned by the city from two lots owned by Sanders at Thirty-first and Main streets. The referees awarded Sanders $2245. He alleges in an affidavit to Whittier that he was wronged on him. He believes the value of the strip is $1000 more than the referees awarded.

CASE SETTLED. As the result of a compromise yesterday the parents of W. J. Renaker, a Pacific Electric conductor who was crushed between two cars February 28, 1910, will receive $3000 damages, and the suit filed by Attorney Brick ending by a verdict. The settlement was approved by Judge Dooling yesterday. Renaker was putting down the ladder when a Glendale car came into the tunnel and owing to an alleged leaking valve, Renaker's car slipped back.

ONE JUROR SHY. The trial of the suit of J. D. Henry against Colman's Warehouse Company in Judge Cusack's court for $1000 damages for loss of goods when the warehouse destroyed by fire, was begun with a jury of twelve men, but concluded with eleven. The absent juror was Francis J. Adams of Alhambra, who met with a mishap while automobiling and was not able to report for duty. The eleven men gave judgment yesterday for Colman.

VERDICT REDUCED. A verdict of $1000 given by a jury in the $11,000 suit of W. H. Hartford against The All Night and Day Bank was reduced yesterday by Judge Houser to $1250. Hartford alleged he was damaged by an error of the bank in marking "no funds" a $10 check he had given C. F. Lewis. The testimony showed that later while Hartford was in the company of a constable he stopped at the bank and had a check cashed. When this fact was known to the attention of the court before whom Hartford was taken, he was released on his own recognizance. Subsequently he filed suit against the bank.

HE SEEMS TOO SURE.

Francisco Cuervo failed yesterday to extort $212.15 from Police Sergeant Pomeroy, after a hearing before Justice Reave, because Cuervo was too exact in his identification of coins he said were in his pocket October 11, when Pomeroy and Officer Bily arrested him. The officers said Cuervo came up North Main street handling between two other men, whom they "tricked" for concealed weapons and sent about their business while the police were coming for Cuervo. The latter's statement that although intoxicated he knew the date on his coins looked like the date on the court. Pomeroy's attorneys intimated that the "two friends" of the plaintiff had gone through his pockets before the officers saw him.
